Borik

A top-of-the-line boutique marina in Croatia's ancient city of Zadar, D-Marin Borik is a fantastic gateway to the island-dotted Adriatic coast.

D-Marin Borik is overlooking historic heart of Zadar, the third largest coastal city in Croatia. Accessible by land and sea, the marina sits 15 km from the Zadar International Airport, with flights to more than 50 European destinations.

Things To Do & Facilities

Forty Bar

Forty Bar is a cosy spot on the shore and a favorite among locals and visitors alike. It is a place to relax, enjoy a cup of coffee, a glass of wine or have a quick meal by the pool with a view of the old city and islands.

MUST-SEE

Stroll along the Riva of Zadar, a scenic waterfront promenade, and be enchanted by the play of the wind and sea at Zadar's Sea Organ, a sound art installation located on the tip of it.

Relax on the stone stairs descending into the sea or feel like an organ's maestro on the piano key-shaped seats in the vicinity and let yourself go to the unique and soothing sound of the organs.

Wander around the Zadar city center and feel a dash of every era. Take a journey from the remains of a Roman Forum and temple commissioned by the first Roman emperor, Augustus, to the one-of-a-kind rotunda church of St. Donatus standing the test of time for more than 1200 years. Explore renaissance Venetian fortifications and the main city square and walk through vivid streets to the modern bars and nightlife.

Discover the serene bays and sandy beaches of Dugi Otok (Long Island), perfect for dropping anchor. The white-sand Sakarun can stand in for a Caribbean beach, while desolate Brbinjšćica cove appeals with „Instagram hotspot“ Dragon-eye and many other caves... or just sail further south below the amazing cliffs towards Telaščica bay.

In Zadar Archipelago, you will always find a natural bay to spend an evening enjoying the breeze and feeling those last warm rays of the Sun on your skin whilst it is plunging into the sea over the islands. See for yourself why Zadar sunset is world's famous!
